OFFICE REMEDIES, INC. AWARDED BLS CONTRACT
Company Expands Federal Agency Offerings

Herndon, VA (October 10, 2007) — Office Remedies, Inc. (ORI), a survey research firm specializing in custom research studies and analysis projects, was recently awarded a contract with the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS). ORI will provide mission critical data collection services in support of the Current Employment Statistics (CES) program. L-3 Communications (L-3) serves as the project's subcontractor. This multi-year, multi-million dollar award is the latest win in ORI's expanded federal presence.

"ORI combines extensive survey and data collection expertise, and has demonstrated success in managing large, time-critical projects," said Jeanne Eek, Program Director, L-3 Enterprise IT Solutions. "ORI's ability to add new resources and knowledge will leverage L-3's previous position as the CES prime contractor and its long-term relationship with BLS."

ORI has built a reputation for dependability, experience and customer satisfaction. The company offers services that span the full life cycle of research projects, from planning and design through data collection, analysis, and reporting. The BLS contract represents ORI's largest contract yet on its GSA MOBIS schedule.

"We're excited about working with BLS," said Kathleen Benson, President, Office Remedies, Inc. "As we've grown, we've continued to implement value-added services for our clients. As a result, agencies like BLS look to us to provide a variety of tabulation, data analysis and reporting services that can be customized to their unique needs."
