OFFICE REMEDIES, INC. PRESIDENT KATHLEEN BENSON RECOGNIZED FOR BUSINESS EXCELLENCE
*Top 100 MBE Award to Be Presented at November 8th Ceremony

Herndon, VA (October 24, 2007) — Kathleen Benson, President, Office Remedies, Inc. (ORI), a survey research firm specializing in custom research studies and analysis projects, has been selected to receive the prestigious Top 100 Minority Business Enterprise (MBE) Award. The University of Maryland University College, the Governor's Office of Minority Affairs (GOMA) and The Maryland Chamber of Commerce notified Ms. Benson of her selection. The program salutes the region's best minority and women business owners and highlights their achievements. The presentation ceremony will take place at 5:30 p.m. on November 8th at the University's Inn and Conference Center, Adelphi, Maryland.

"As the entrepreneurial campus in the University System of Maryland, we are honored to support the working men and women who are building businesses and future opportunities," says Susan C. Aldridge, President of the University of Maryland University College.

A panel of distinguished judges chose ORI as an entrepreneur that demonstrated outstanding achievement in four key areas: business development, client satisfaction, professional affiliations and community outreach. For a complete listing of award winners or to obtain event tickets, visit <http://www.top100mbe.com>.

Sharon R. Pinder, founder of the TOP 100 MBE Awards Ceremony said, "The business owners selected for this award represent the best of the region's more than 350,000 women and minority owned businesses. Their contributions have had a major impact in maintaining Maryland's vibrant economy."
